NEW CHAPTER LEADERSHIP ANNOUNCEMENT

ENAC Alumni Canada has a new chair: congratulations to Amandine Gicquel - Leduc (MS MTA 2004) on her appointment!

While many of our members live in Montréal, QC, we also have alumni in the other provinces and territories of Canada. This chapter aims to bring them together and serve this community through new activities and programs. Stay tuned for more exciting news about our Canadian chapter!

WHY HAVING A CHAPTER?

- Canada Chapter: 200 members
- Challenge: Reunite everyone across Canada
- High-level ideas about what the chapter could be/do: social gatherings, group project, networking...etc.

DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

- We all have a role to play in making the ENAC Alumni (region) Chapter open and welcoming to all ENAC Alumni members, regardless of:
 - Sex, gender, and/or sexual identity
 - Disabilities, cognitive identity, special needs, etc.
 - Religion, ethnicity, national or socioeconomic origin or status.
 - Professional background and/or degree of study at ENAC.
 - Any other criteria that could be reasonably construed as discriminatory or unwelcoming.
- Discrimination, biases, and or/hate speech from, towards, or between members are strictly prohibited in the Chapter, and more generally our association. They are subject to expulsion.
- ENAC Alumni is a safe place for all! Please report all incidences of this behavior to contact@alumni.enac.fr.
 - Discussions should be professional: political speech or engaging in proselytization is prohibited by our statutes.

WHAT ARE YOUR NEEDS & EXPECTATIONS?

STRATEGIC GOALS

What is our purpose? What should our chapter aim to achieve?
What can we do for our members and advancing aviation locally?

Define about 5 strategic goals.

Note: The strategic goals need to be submitted to the Head of International Development for approval.

Examples: Bring together the local ENAC community, promote networking and friendship between the members, promote ENAC and the French engineer status in our country, mentor the newcomers (students and professionals), support the action of ENAC Alumni, etc.
